BIG PAY REPORTED AT BOTH ELLSWORTH AND COKEBURG

Over $65,000 Paid Out Thursday in Wages by Ellsworth Collieries Co.

SCHOOL TO OPEN AUG. 30

New System to be Inaugurated This Year in Big Industrial Community—Believed to be One of Best Ever Tried Anywhere.

Totaling something over $65,000, one of the biggest pays of the present year was made at Cokeburg and Ellsworth Thursday by the Ellsworth Collieries company. The pay was only a regular two weeks pay.

Excellent conditions are reported in the Ellsworth and Cokeburg regions, where the mines have been operating steadily since May 1. Previous to that time they had operated for several months half heartedly.

Prospects are bright at the Pigeon Creek valley industrial region. The product of the Ellsworth and Cokeburg mines is used almost entirely by the Lackawanna Steel company since it operates the mines under the name of the Ellsworth Collieries company.

Arrangements are being made for the opening of school on August 30 at both Ellsworth and Cokeburg and this year will witness a departure from previous courses in the schools there, with the purpose in view being the betterment of the two institutions. Prof. E. E. Bach, sociological superintendent for the collieries company promises a later description of the system being inaugurated, considering it one of the best ever tried in any industrial community.

ALLENPORT DOGS IN AWFUL LUCK; HAVE TO BE GUARDED 100 DAYS

Quarantine Established by State Agent Numerous Canines Believed To Have Met Maddog.

Allenport dogs have had a quarantine placed upon them for 100 days by an officer from the state live stock and sanitary department with headquarters on Herrs Island, Pittsburg, owing to the fact that many dogs have been bitten by a mad dog last week. Many of the dogs bitten were killed last Friday and their bodies burned.

The matter having been taken up with the department at Harrisburg by Dr. D.D. Haines, a physician of Allenport, a man from Herrs Island was hurried there to look over the situation. He discovered seven dogs living that had been bitten and immediately placed them in quarantine. If they show no signs of rabies within the hundred days they will be liberated. If rabies develops they will be killed.

Nearly every dog in Allen township seems to have met the mad dog Wednesday night or Thursday morning. Strict watch will be kept on all dogs whether in quarantine or not.

WATER BABIES IN EXHIBITION

Children Perform at Charleroi Bathing Beach, Showing Wonderful Ability

GO THROUGH VARIOUS ACTS

Minus some of their best performers, Swoger's "Water Babies" from Brownsville appeared in an exhibition at the Charleroi bathing beach Thursday afternoon and with their swimming and diving entertained a crowd of some hundred persons which lined the shore. The program was carried out under the direction of Jacob Swoger, who has trained the children in their art.

Swoger brought with him children ranging in age from 5 to 16 years, and had them all perform. The program included various kinds of swimming by various ones. Performers were Annie Gillie, Olive Kisner, Mildred Orr, Frances Gates, Helen Harris, Mary Worhak, Nellie Monsor, Barbara Gates, Lara Addas and others. One of the interesting features was that of a girl taking off her coat in the water without ducking her head. Olive Kisner was the tot who performed this feat. Other performers gave the merry-go-round sort of swimming and the muskrat swimming.

Charles Viglotti gave an exhibition of long distance dive, diving a distance of fully one third the length of the beach. In the "grand finale" there was a general plunge of all per-

TOWNSHIP RESIDENTS TO REPAIR OWN ROADS

Funds for Improvement Provided Through Individual Contribution—Milk Dealers Determined Not to Drive Through Mud

Several residents of Smith and Mt. Pleasant townships who are in favor of good roads are determined that they will not gravel in the mud in getting their milk to the station and as a result they have reached down into their own pockets and raised enough money to construct a stretch of brick highway that will close up a gap of nearly 1000 feet.

Mt. Pleasant township constructed a piece of brick highway on what is known as the Hickory-Midway road, but for a distance from Midway to the terminus of this road it is not improved. The farmers of that section who haul their milk to Midway every day are not anxious to drive through the mud all winter. In raising funds six men gave $50 each and then the people of Midway, Cherry Valley and others gave liberally until $800 was raised for the purpose.

BARN DESTROYED BY FIRE; LOSS $5,000

J. E. Long of Forward Township, Opposite Monongahela Suffers Loss While Absent From Home Attending Picnic.

A large and modern barn on the J. E. Long farm in Forward township opposite Monongahela was completely destroyed by fire about 5 o'clock Thursday afternoon. In it were stored all of this year's grain and hay. The loss will probably exceed $5,000 and will be partially covered by insurance.

Heating ovens in a mow are believed to have started the blaze. Mr. Long and family were attending the picnic at Kenneywood. A hired man and woman were milking when the flames were discovered. All the cows in the stable were removed from the burning building and other stock was saved with the exception of a valuable calf.

Farmers hurried from all sections to fight the fire when notified by telephone but could do nothing to save the structure.

OVERCOME BY HEAT AT MERCHANTS PICNIC

While attending the Monongahela Merchants' picnic at Kenneywood last Thursday Joseph Isler, aged 31 years, son of Mayor L. C. Isler, was taken suddenly ill and is in a McKeesport hospital in a serious condition. Physicians say he was overcome by heat and that while there is no immediate danger, they will not speak of the future. The picnic was largely attended, residents of the city and adjacent districts going by the hundreds on a special train and by automobile.

been arranged to be given at the Majestic theatre on Sunday afternoon, September 5, at 2 o'clock. The musical program will be an especially attractive one, and the soloist for the occasion will be Pierre DeBacher, formerly first violinist of the Pittsburgh Symphony orchestra. He will appear to play a Wieniawski concerto and other compositions. The complete program will be announced later.

GOOD VAUDEVILLE PROGRAM PRESENTED AT PALACE

The vaudeville program of three acts, which is being presented at the Palace theatre the last three days of the week is worthy of special mention. Madam Silverado, is an aerialist who entertains with some daring feats of strength and trapeze work. The second part of the program is taken up by singers who present songs that never grow old in a pleasing manner. Perhaps the most appreciated is the work of Seaburn and Price who are both cartoonists and singers of ability.

WILD MAN MAKES HIS APPEARANCE

Annual Visitation of Prowling Person Reported in Back Country District

THIS TIME HE IS CAPTURED

After having prowled and roamed over a large portion of Amwell township and a part of West Bethlehem with the result that residents of that area were greatly excited and women and children feared to go to pick berries or leave their homes, a man evidently demented, who gave his name as George Weslick and says he was an inmate of Dixmont for five years, was captured after an exciting chase Thursday night on the Joseph Mowl farm in West Bethlehem township.

Weslick made his appearance first about one week ago in Amwell township. Since then he had been seen at various places from Chestnut Ridge to Lone Pine, in the Brush Run region and West Bethlehem township. He had a bed fixed under the bridge near the Marion Closser farm.

GETS IN WASHINGTON BUT IT IS NOT D. C.

Under a wrong impression that he had arrived at the capital of the United States when he arrived in Washington, this county, three weeks ago Aron Larson a Swede aged 38 years and single, without the slightest knowledge of English, coming direct from his home in Sweden took rooms at the Cozy hotel with a view to negotiating with United States authorities relative to the purchase of a new submarine of his own invention.

Mr. Larson want $140,000 for his invention. He was in Washington a week before he found a Swede with whom he could confer. Up until that time he was under the impression that Washington was the capital. He spent two more weeks visiting Swedes with whom he struck up an acquaintance.

PUBLIC SAFETY
It is being commonly predicted, with some show of reason, that for a few months there will be a turmoil of investigation all over the country, of all picnic and excursion boats, following the Eastland tragedy. Afterward, when public feeling has simmered down, the business of running such craft may settle down to about the same old perilous conditions, says an exchange.

One reason why investigation of great disasters frequently produce unsatisfactory results is that it is so very costly to remedy original mistakes. This was proven true in hundreds of cases following the Iroquois theatre disaster. At that time half of the public halls and cheaper theatres were human life traps.

It would not have cost much more, when a building was constructed, to have put in adequate exits. But to save a few scamped dollars, the builders would narrow down and cut out doors and stairways. To repair such mistakes once they are made would cost $10 for every one saved in the original building.

As a consequence, a good many balls and amusement places were absolutely shut up at that time. After the public fury blew over, inspection became lax again and many of them opened up with little change from previous conditions.

People who run enterprises for public entertainment and travel do not always realize what a good deal of safety is. The public may be thoughtless. But it does feel better on excursion boats well provided with rafts, life preservers, in theatres and halls well equipped with exits and on railroads with block signals and steel coaches.

Safety is something which can be advertised and featured over and over again. Not merely do people feel better in such services but provision for safety gives an impression of prosperity, liberality and substantial character that wins public friendship and patronage.

HIGHER FREIGHT RATES

The petition of western railroads to be allowed to increase their freight rates has been granted by the Inter-State Commerce commission. The estimates of railroad experts, will amount to only $1,600,000, divided among 41 lines or about $400,000 each. This is unsatisfactory to the roads of course. They could use a great deal more, says the Pittsburgh Dispatch.

Among the facts which somewhat influenced the determination of the commission is said to be the significant one that some of the petitioning lines are suffering more from bad management than from inefficient rates and that if there should be radical improvement in this direction the revenue would be found satisfactory.

Commissioner Daniels thought, singularly that the loss in this way should not be considered at all and that if any road merited higher rates these should be granted forthwith. Which would mean "passing the buck" to the public or awarding a premium to mismanagement. But the commission as a whole was too sensible to approve such a view. The grant of $1,600,000 will help some, and if the misconnected roads will take a reef in their finances it will mean more of the needful "buck" to them. But when the figures have missed their calculations it may prove that the commission of the commission will amount to a great deal more than it is now thought to be.

And Donora is having a boom. Talk about luck! Donora never lifted a finger to secure these vast new mills. As the Connellsville Courier says: Donora is one of those happy towns which don't have to grasp Opportunity. Every now and then Opportunity walks right in and sits down, never knocking at the door at all.

"Did it ever occur to you," remarked a stranger visiting here recently, "that Charleroi's Saturday evening crowds are the equal on the streets to many of the large cities?" It is true, for the Charleroi main streets are thronged just as much Saturday and some other evenings as the main streets of the ordinary city. It is a good sign.

Attracted doubtless by the glitter of the great city, as pictured in the movies and her dreams a Monessen girl of 16 left home, taking with her it is believed $125 of her father's hard earned savings. Such a disappearance has become more or less of an ordinary thing in different localities, but the tragedy of it remains the same, for it spells disgrace and nearly always, ruin.

It wouldn't be the hardest thing in the world to name a few reasons why many would rather do their own barbering. Among them might be mentioned profane barbers and barber-shop patrons.

Charleroi is automobile rich. No figures are at hand as to the number of cars there are owned here, but any bystander can always without turning his head tire himself counting them.

PICKED UP IN PASSING

A dergyman had taught an old man in his parish to read and found him an apt pupil. Calling at the cottage some time after he found only the wife at home.

"How's John?" asked he.
"He is well thank you," said his wife.
"How does he get on with his reading?"
"Nicely, sir."
"Ah! I suppose he can read his Bible comfortably now?"
"Bible, sir! Bless you, he was out of the Bible and into the sporting papers long ago!"—Tru-Bits.

A young man saying goodbye to his sweetheart was leaning on the garden gate.
"I'm going to ask you a favor," the girl said hesitatingly.
"It is already granted," he answered.

"A very great favor," she repeated as if doubtful of the propriety of saying what it was. "You're sure that you won't think it presumptuous or forward of me?"
"Never," he assured her. "Only tell me what I can do for you."
"Well," she replied, "would you mind not leaning on that gate? Father painted it this afternoon and he will be awfully provoked if he has to paint it again."

MANY DEATHS SO FAR IN THE FIFTH DISTRICT

With the number of accidents that have occurred in the Fifth Bituminous mining district during the first six months of the year, from January, showing a substantial increase over the total number for the year of 1914, it may be that by the last of December that district will have hung up a new high record at least for the past few years. Mine Inspector I. G. Roby of Uniontown, in summing up the number of accidents during the first six months of the year, found that last year's good record will probably be lost to view, because of the comparatively greater number of accidents for the first half of 1915.

Where in 1914 there were but seven fatal accidents, there have been in the first six months of 1915, nine deaths caused by mine accidents. Of the number killed so far this year in the Fifth district the majority have been due to slate and coal falls. There has been one electrocution. In non-fatal accidents, the usual course of events has been again upset. Usually there are about two non-fatal accidents to one fatal, but this year has found the latter greatly in excess of the non-fatal accidents in proportion. Until August 1, in the Fifth district, there were eight non-fatal accidents.

Last year was an exceptional one for scarcity of mine accidents. Light production was in a measure responsible. This year, production has increased considerably, but the number of accidents have increased also and much more rapidly from a proportional standpoint.

Anderson Hootman, aged 83, a lifelong resident of Washington county and grandson of the late Benjamin Parkinson of Whisky Insurrection fame, died in his home at Washington Thursday evening. He was a member of the Pigeon Creek Presbyterian church. He leaves a widow and nine children.

Such warning symptoms as sense of suffocation, hot flashes, headaches, backaches, dread of impending evil, timidity, sounds in the ears, palpitation of the heart, sparks before the eyes, irregularities, constipation, variable appetite, weakness and inquietude, and dizziness, are promptly heeded by intelligent women who are approaching the period in life when woman's great change may be expected.

MANY CASES LEFT ON GRAND JURY DOCKET

Twenty-One Listed For Today and Work Will Probably be Completed
—Consul Appointed for Men Accused of Manslaughter.

Twenty-one cases remain on today's grand jury list at the county seat and all of these will likely be disposed of. This will about complete the criminal list. The grand jury will go to the county home on Saturday. Next Monday the members will come back to hear whatever road or bridge petitions there may be to be heard. Criminal court will be convened on next Monday at 1 o'clock. The present term is very light for an August term.

George Crumrine held for court on very serious charges, the enticing of minor girls, was indicted Wednesday on two charges, containing a total of five counts. His case will come up for trial at this term of court.

Attorneys Clyde Pipes and Dwig M. Anderson were yesterday appointed counsel to defend Joseph Auria of Houston in jail awaiting trial for murder. The case was continued from last term. Attorneys Pipes and Anderson had heretofore been appointed but the defendant said he expected to secure counsel, consequently the appointed counsel did nothing further in the case. Auria said that he had no one to represent him. The case is set for trial on August 23, but it is likely that it will be continued to the November term. Auria is alleged to have killed Frank Raguso at Houston on April 14, 1915.

Counsel is also to be appointed for Fred Kolbos held for murder he being arrested in connection with the mysterious shooting of M. Cohen a Marianna merchant a few weeks ago. Pete Dailey, recently brought back from West Virginia, where he had fled following the killing of Charles Moffit, an aged blacksmith at West Brownsville, last January also asks for counsel to be appointed for his defense. Sam Roberts is out on bail in connection with this killing and Joe Roberts said to know considerable about the case is still at large.

Costa Marko arrested last week for the fatal wounding of Milan Marinch was also before court to have counsel appointed, but he stated he might secure counsel and no action was taken.

The court will make an order appointing counsel in the other cases.

Andy Lora, charged with enticing a female child under 16 years of age, entered a plea of guilty. He was given an indeterminate term in the penitentiary of from two to five years. The defendant came from Donora.

WEST PENN COMPANY ARRANGING PICNIC

Elaborate preparations are being made for the tenth annual outing of the West Penn railways and affiliated companies which is to be held at Oakford park August 17 and 24. The early men will picnic on the first date mentioned and the late men on the latter date mentioned. Married employees will be furnished with free transportation to and from the picnic grounds for members of their immediate families and unmarried employees will be given transportation for a friend, mother, father or dependent brother or sister. The company will also furnish free ice cream at the park. The picnickers will take their own baskets. Special cars will leave Uniontown about 7:30 a. m. and return about 9 p. m.

The feature of the day's outing will be the athletic program which will cover the entire day. Included in these events, it is expected, will be demonstrations with the trolley cars. Handsome prizes will be awarded the winner of each event. A baseball game will be played each afternoon between the Uniontown and McKeesport teams.

The park will be given over to the West Penn household for the two days and the officers in charge are doing everything possible to make the occasion the greatest yet. In order to give the employees and their families the fullest benefit of the privileges granted the picnic committee has found it necessary to restrict the number of tickets issued to outsiders or persons in no way connected with the organization.

Daniel Durie, superintendent of transportation, located at Connellsville will distribute tickets.

The makers of Eckman's Alternative will be pleased to send reports of recoveries from tuberculosis and a booklet of interest to sufferers with information about diet and fresh air. Investigate this case—
"My Dear Sirs:—For two years I was afflicted with hemorrhages of the lungs, and later I was taken with a severe attack of pneumonia. When I recovered sufficiently to walk about the house I was left with a frightful cough, which no medicine I had taken could alleviate. It was at this time, March, 1902, that I started taking Eckman's Alternative. In a short time my cough was gone and I was pronounced well. I cannot speak too highly for the good it has done."
